PERSONAL PROFILE

I'm a relatively new web developer that is half self-taught and really enthusiastic about coding. I'm pretty good at backend and frontend, and I enjoy both since I can think logically and creatively.

OTHER SKILLS

I am self-motivated and extremely driven. I work well under pressure and can deliver reliable results. I am a team player and can work in a fast environment.

HOBBIES

I'm a huge videogames lover, and I usually spend a lot of my free time playing MOBAs, MMORPGs, ARPGs, Shooters, and so on. One of my other loves is watching television shows (most recently German ones such as Dark or Tribes of Europe), movies, and anime shows, the latter which is one of the most recent stuff I've been watching and which has piqued my interest in Japanese culture.
