MY PROJECTS

RELEVE.DEV - Introducing people to new technologies.

This project was one of my ideas about helping self-teaching people and everyone that wants to start learning any programming language, it was a team project and we used rails, css, html, javascript and we used Udemy and Github API to have real data.

Plarent - Your site for renting planets.
This project was a airBnB clone where we used Planets for renting, i really enjoyed doing the design of this web and pretty much everything.
